"A wondrous read, full of surprises. So compact with those few words traveling great distances much like the two characters themselves.

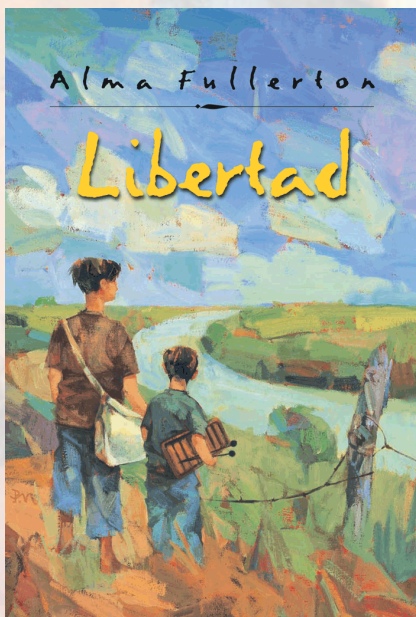

Kids will like the quick read, the excitement of the journey, the intense plot and of course, the two boys and the characters they meet...

I was riveted."

-VIRGINIA FRANCES SCHWARTZ, author, Send One Angel Down

"An important story, beautifully written. Alma Fullerton draws us into a world that too few think of, and introduces us to courageous children who refuse to be thrown away."

-DEBORAH ELLIS, author, the Breadwinner trilogy
