

PAY IT FORWARD KIDS

SMALL ACTS, BIG CHANGE

14 kids making a difference in their world
14 kids...14 stories...countless hearts touched

In Pay It Forward Kids, readers will meet ordinary kids from across North America who have done extraordinary things, all on their own initiatives. They have set out to “pay it forward” to someone else, with astonishing results. The ripple effect of their deeds has inspired others to join their causes, and in some cases, to start missions of their own.

These kids have raised both money and awareness for causes such as homelessness, human rights, orphans, and literacy. They’ve also enabled others to enjoy pleasures that many people take for granted.

A percentage of all royalties from this project will be donated to the official Pay It Forward Foundation to continue to support this message and work.

“They’re nerdy, brave and innovative. These entrepreneurs are leading the way to a better tomorrow.”
—Sally Armstrong, Human Rights Activist

“The young boys and girls in this book are leading the way. They form a unique group of kids who are helping create a better world—kids who will inspire others to do the same.”
—Charley Johnson, President of the Pay It Forward Foundation

Nancy Runstedler grew up in Wellesley, Ontario. She has worked in both public and school libraries. She is the author of the novel Beautiful Goodbye. She never leaves the house without two “pay it forward” bracelets on her wrists — one as a constant reminder to do good, and the other to give away when opportunities present themselves. She lives in Paris, Ontario with her daughter.
