

Special Announcement!

Publication date: March 1, 2013
ISBN: 978-0-88995-455-7
Ages 12+ • 246 pages • 5.25 x 7.5
$12.95

Jamie Bastedo is a biologist turned storyteller and the award-winning author of 12 books that connect readers of all ages with the magic and mystery of nature. His books for young people include Tracking Triple Seven, On Thin Ice, Sila's Revenge, and Free as the Wind. He lives in Yellowknife, Northwest Territories, Canada.

Nighthawk!

by Jamie Bastedo

The American Birding Association (ABA) declared the nighthawk its Bird of the Year, coinciding with Jamie Bastedo's latest book for young readers Nighthawk!

"Bastedo portrays Wisp as all bird, complete with animal behavior, but relies on trans-species omniscience and human teenage slang to tell the tale...satisfying blend of science and action. An entertaining and even educational read."

— Kirkus Reviews

"Blends magic and fact of bird migration."

— Yellowknifer

"Writing from years of experience working in the field, Jamie Bastedo, biologist extraordinaire, has crafted an exciting and informative novel with a unique point-of-view...Timely, refreshingly honest, and funny, Nighthawk! is an engaging adventure tale which will have a broad appeal."

— CM Magazine

Red Deer Press

195 Allstate Parkway, Markham, Ontario L3R 4T8
Contact: Cheryl Chen • 905-477-9700 x 258 • cheryl.chen@fitzhenry.ca