

Fitzhenry & Whiteside

Hockey Talk - Crossword Puzzle

Fitzhenry & Whiteside

Hockey Talk - Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS

- 1 To avoid a fight by bending over and covering up, or even falling to the ice and exposing only a curled back to the aggressor.
- 4 "Hitting the ____" on the goalie's chest is not a great idea if you are trying to score.
- 6 Clutch and ____ - Hold onto and slow down an opposing player
- 8 A player will drop these old-fashioned "gloves" before a fight.
- 10 Fred Cusick used to broadcast games for the Boston ____.
- 11 This announcer coined the phrase "cannonading shot."
- 13 A weak pass that can easily be intercepted by the other team (with disastrous results) is sometimes called a "live ____."
- 14 A goalie who is making easy glove saves is said to be "picking ____."
- 17 "____wreck" - a heavy collision between two players coming hard from opposite directions
- 18 "____ my back with a hacksaw!" says Mike Lange.
- 21 An annoying player who effectively gets under the skin of the opposition.
- 22 Foster Hewitt's signature phrase: He shoots, he ____!
- 23 ____ Lecavalier, broadcaster for the Canadiens.
- 24 "Sudden ____" or next goal wins!

DOWN

- 2 Spin-o-____
- 3 A lackadaisical skater who does not give an all-out effort
- 5 As Howie Meeker might say, "Golly, gee, ____!"
- 6 Describes a "trashy," inelegant goal that is scored as a result of crashing the net.
- 7 RJ Jeanneret was famous for wearing these flashy items of clothing.
- 9 The author of Hockey Talk
- 12 In road hockey, kids will yell this out and move the nets over so that traffic can move through.
- 15 An arena or sheet of ice. Kids who hang out here are sometimes called "____ rats."
- 16 Don Cherry's nickname
- 19 The illustrator of Hockey Talk
- 20 An area of the ice described as neutral, offensive, or defensive.
- 22 A great place to take a shot on net, right between the face-off circles in the offensive end.